Rover Retreat Hosts Bulldog Club of Denver's Annual Bulloween Party

Metro Denver's premier non-traditional dog kennel is the setting for the yearly celebration, complete with English Bulldogs in costume.

LAFAYETTE, CO —October 19, 2009—Dedicated to helping dog rescue whenever possible, Rover Retreat announces the Bulldog Club of Denver's annual Bulloween party to be held Saturday, October 24, 2009 at their Lafayette location.

Beginning at 12:30 pm and lasting through 3 pm at 287 North US Highway 287 in Lafayette, Bulloween events will include costume contests, prizes, refreshments, activities for kids, and a raffle. The cost is $6.00 per family, and all proceeds will go to the Bulldog Club of Denver's rescue group, the Bulldog Club of America Rescue Network.

The goal of the rescue group is to accept English Bulldogs whose owners can no longer keep them and find loving and responsible homes for them, providing medical treatment or training if necessary. To reduce pet overpopulation, rescue dogs are spayed or neutered before placement.

Therese Morin, owner of Rover Retreat, is honored to be hosting Bulloween this year. "We'd like to invite everyone to bring a 'ghoulish' dish to share, and tableware and drinks will be provided," she stated. "We have some fun activities planned for adults and kids, a raffle, and English Bulldogs running around in costume – who could resist?"

Guests planning to attend are requested to RSVP with the number of bulldogs, adults, and children to albert.nishimoto@sprint.com.
